

Marine Safety Workshops

Tides Inn - 307 1st Street

Petersburg, Alaska

Fishing Vessel Drill Conductor Workshop

February 5, 2017 - 8:00 AM to 6:00 PM

- Cold water survival skills
- EPIRBs, Flares & Maydays
- Man overboard recovery
- Firefighting
- Flooding control
- Immersion Suits
- Personal Flotation Devices
- Emergency drills
- Liferafts
- Helicopter evacuation
- Abandon ship procedure

Meets U.S.C.G. training requirements for drill conductors on commercial fishing vessels.

Fishing Vessel Stability Awareness & Damage Control

February 6, 2017 - 8:00 AM to 2:00 PM

- Basic Terminology of Stability
- Owner Responsibilities & Requirements
- What are Stability, Buoyancy, and Gravity?
- Vessel Stability: How Does it Work?
- Stability Risks
- Seamanship
- Damage Control
- Risk Factors for Different Fisheries and Operations
- How to Understand Formal Stability Instructions
- How Stability Guidance is Created
- The "Roll Test"

FREE to Commercial Fishermen, Supported by the U.S. Coast Guard, NIOSH, and DCCED

Space is limited! Register online at www.amsea.org or call AMSEA at 907-747-3287

Alaska Marine Safety Education Association - 2924 Halibut Point Rd. - Sitka,